Question Two

/20

A. Read the following text carefully, and then in your ANSWER BOOKLET answer all the questions that follow. Your answers should be based on the text.

Indonesian teenager, Aldi Adilang, is only 19, but he has already gone through the ordeal of being lost at sea an incredible three times! The first two times he got off relatively lightly; he was drifting for a week, and the second time for two days. Those experiences sound terrifying enough, but on the third occasion he was alone in the ocean for 49 long days.

This day had started just like any other, until the rope attaching his rompong to the bottom of the sea broke and, already far from the coast, he started to drift even further away. At first, he wasn't too worried. He took it for granted that sooner or later his boss would come and rescue him, as he had done before. Aldi had a week's supply of food. He was sure it would all be fine.

But after a week his supplies ran out. He caught fish and used parts of his wooden hut to make a fire and cook the fish. Not having any more fresh drinking water, he had no choice but to drink sea water. However, he filtered the sea water through his clothes to reduce the amount of salt. This must have done the trick because he survived for four days until it rained and he was able to collect some rainwater.

After this setback, he really started to worry. To try and take his mind off his situation he sang and read. However, the isolation took its toll on him. He admitted that he almost gave up hope, but the thought of seeing his parents again kept him going.

In the end, after 49 days, he saw a ship, The Arpeggio. Desperate to make himself understood he used the few words of English he knew over the radio: 'Help! Help!' The ship turned around to pick him up. The boat was heading for Japan, so they took him with them. Finally, the Indonesian embassy collected him and flew him home, almost two months after his ordeal had begun.

Safely back home with his family, Aldi considered his options. His family lived in some hardship and his job was, from his perspective, relatively lucrative at $134 a month. However, having found himself drifting three times since he started the job aged 16, he and his family decided it simply wasn't worth the risk. From now on, he'll be staying firmly on dry land.

1. At first, Aldi wasn't too worried for two main reasons. Write them down. (4 points)
2. Aldi was able to survive after his supplies ran out by doing three things. Mention them. (3 points)
3. Quote the sentence which shows the thing that helped Aldi to continue after he almost lost hope. (4 points)
4. Find a phrase in the text that means "caused harm or suffering. ". (3 points)
5. What does the underlined pronoun (he) refer to? (3 points)
6. Resilience is something that people build by going through difficulties and coming out the other side. Think of this statement, and in two sentences, write down your point of view. (3 points)
