

A: Read the article by Huda Albarzna again and answer the questions.

1. Understanding 'Home':

a) According to Huda, what is the essential difference between a 'house' and a 'home'?

b) What two words does Huda use to describe how she feels in her home (flat)?

2. Family Life and Activities:

a) In which two specific rooms in the house do Huda's family members often sleep?

b) What does Huda's sister's room in the house often get used for, since the sister is away?

c) Huda says her house is noisy in the morning. What is the main reason for this noise?

3. Inference and Detail:

A) Multiple Choice: Huda mentions the neighbours are "always friendly." This supports the idea that the community provides:

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1) physical protection. | 2) a sense of belonging and support. |
| 3) better places to play games. | 4) special food. |

B) What specific sensory detail (smell, sound, sight, touch) from the evening time does Huda mention makes her house her "home"?

B: Match the adjective (1-6) with the correct definition/description (A-F)

1. Traditional	a. Very bad or unpleasant.
2. Quiet	b. Having nothing or no one inside.
3. Empty	c. Made or done according to old customs; old-fashioned.
4. Dark	d. Free from noise or disturbance; making little or no sound.
5. Terrible	e. Different from what is usually done; unique or noteworthy.
6. Special	f. Having little or no light.

C: Complete the sentences using the most appropriate adjective from the box. You will use five words. | terrible | same | light | different | small | fantastic |

1. My cousin and I live in two very _____ houses; mine is old and his is new.
2. The old room was so _____ that we couldn't fit all the furniture we wanted inside.
3. The sun came through the window, making the kitchen bright and _____.
4. I hope to pass my exams! That would be a _____ feeling.
5. All the plates look exactly the _____—it's difficult to tell them apart.

D: Rewrite the sentences, replacing the underlined word(s) with an adjective from the vocabulary list (Section B or C) that has the opposite meaning, making sure the new sentence is grammatically correct and logical.

1. Huda says her apartment is a normal place to live, like most houses in the area.
Huda says her apartment is a _____ place to live, unlike most houses in the area.
2. When Huda comes home, the house is full of people and noise.
When Huda comes home, the house is _____ of people and noise.
3. My grandmother lives in a modern house in the country.
My grandmother lives in a _____ house in the country.
4. Inference: The article mentions Huda can't always cook really well.
What is a reasonable inference about why she might still try to cook? (Use your own words.)

A: Reading Comprehension:

a) Answer: A house is a building, but a home is a place where you feel safe and comfortable and keep your belongings.

b) Answer: Safe and Comfortable (Lines 4-5)

Family Life and Activities: a) Answer: The bathroom and the living room. (Lines 15-16: "...my brother sleeps in the bedrooms, wash in the bathroom and relax in the living room.")

b) Answer: It is used as the room for ironing. (Line 23)

c) Answer: The house is full of people (and activity/routine) before work and school. (Line 31)

Inference and Detail: a) Answer: 2) a sense of belonging and support. (Neighbours who help and give gifts build a supportive community.)

b) Answer: The fantastic smell of her mum's cooking. (Line 35)

B: Adjective Definitions Matching

1. Traditional ↔ C
2. Quiet ↔ D
3. Empty ↔ B
4. Dark ↔ F
5. Terrible ↔ A
6. Special ↔ E

Section C: Vocabulary Application

1. different
2. small
3. light
4. fantastic
5. same

Section D: Sentence Transformation & Inference

1. special
2. empty
3. traditional

1. Inference: أي من هذه الإجابات صحيحة؟

- 1) She tries to cook because she misses her family routines and wants to participate.
- 2) She cooks because she wants to help her mum or share in the housework.
- 3) She tries to cook because she knows her mother's cooking is a special part of home, and she wants to practice that skill.

 Unlock the Next Step in English
From Basics to Fluency

