Question (2) :

And what about those creatures that many people would find positively ugly? With its tiny eyes, big mouth and slimy pink body, the blobfish is far from attractive. This marine creature lives deep in the ocean, where the pressure is very high. As a result, it has tiny fins and no skeleton, which keeps it from being crushed by the water pressure.

Unfortunately, when fishing boats sweep the ocean floor, looking for other fish and crustaceans, these fish can get swept into the nets accidentally.

The threat faced by the pangolin, however, is far from accidental. They are more often targeted by poachers than any other animal in the world. Unique among mammals, it is covered in scales, like a reptile. They may not look very cuddly or cute, but these scales are highly prized in traditional Chinese medicine, which has caused the population of pangolins in China to fall by around %90 since the 1960s. Their scales protect them from their natural predators, but it's simple for a poacher to just pick them up.

Other creatures become endangered precisely because people find them ugly. Take the aye aye for example. Found only on the island of Madagascar, the aye aye is the world's largest nocturnal primate. During the day they sleep in nests in the trees, coming out to hunt at night. They are solitary creatures, furry, and harmless but unfortunately, they are often killed.

1- The text states two physical features protect the blobfish from an extreme environment. Write them down.

2- Write down the sentence which shows that the pangolins are different from others in its class.

3- What does the underlined pronoun refer to?

4- Where can the aye aye be found, and what time of day is it active?

5- Suggest two ways to protect endangered species from extinction.

Question (3) :

- 1. Write a formal email to a clothing store chain in your country. Describe the problem of plastic packaging and shopping bags, and urge the chain to take action by switching to eco-friendly packaging or offering discounts for customers who bring reusable bags.

- 2. Write an essay discussing the advantages and the disadvantages of online learning and traditional classroom learning.
