

Q1. Choose the correct answer:

1. Which of these is a language?
 - a) Tennis
 - b) Spanish
 - c) Running
 - d) Painting
2. Which situation shows bilingualism?
 - a) A girl speaks Arabic only.
 - b) A boy speaks Arabic and English.
 - c) A teacher speaks no languages.
 - d) A baby cries.
3. Which is a common problem for language learners?
 - a) Forgetting words
 - b) Flying airplanes
 - c) Driving a car
 - d) Cooking food
4. When you don't understand a word, what can you do?
 - a) Stop learning
 - b) Use another language
 - c) Sleep
 - d) Ignore it forever
5. Which one is a reason people learn new languages?
 - a) To travel and study abroad
 - b) To eat faster
 - c) To sleep more
 - d) To run faster

Q2. Fill in the blanks...

1. My cousin is ____ (learning / driving) French this year.
2. At home, my parents usually ____ (speak) Arabic, but today they ____ (speak) English for fun.
3. I sometimes ____ (forget) words, but I ____ (try) to use a dictionary.
4. They ____ (use) English at school, but right now they ____ (practice) Spanish.
5. I ____ (watch) English films to improve my listening.

Q3. True / False

1. People can be trilingual if they speak three languages.
2. If you never practice, your language will improve quickly.
3. Using songs and movies is a fun way to practice languages
4. Speaking more than one language is not useful in life.
5. Sometimes learners mix two languages when they talk.

Answers:

Q1: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. b) Spanish2. b) A boy speaks Arabic and English.3. a) Forgetting words4. b) Use another language	Q2: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. learning2. speak\are speaking3. forget\ try4. use ... are practicing5. watch	Q3: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. True2. False3. True4. False5. True
---	--	--

 Unlock the Next Step in English
From Basics to Fluency

